ERIN NOTES.

Rev. R. B. Polk, presiding elder of the Clarksville District, held his first quarterly meeting here at St. James C. M. E. Church January 21 and 22. The pastor, Rev. Moore, was not able to be out, yet the quarter was a successful one. Rev. B. L. Love, pastor of St. Luke A. M. E. Church, preached two sermons at his church Sunday. Each service was well attended. Rev. A. L. Minor left for his work Saturday morning. Rev. B. Dobbins returned from his work Monday morning, and reports things favorable for winter. Prof. Wm. Nicholas, who has been teaching at Dover, Tenn., returned home Saturday for the winter. Mrs. Clara Dobbins, Mrs. Maud Carter and Miss Eddie Dobbins were pleasant callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Terry Sunday afternoon and reported an enjoyable time. Misses Lottie Kelley and Bessie Ramey were seen out visiting the sick Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Eva Dudley, who has been sick four weeks, is improving rapidly. Mr. Pondexter Wilkerson, Miss Annie Rutland and Mr. Davy Young have been on the sick list for some time. Mr. Amos Armstrong, of Clarksville, Tenn., is here at work for several days, putting in a furnace at the college (white). He is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Scott. Several members and friends of St. Luke A. M. E. Church made Rev. and Mrs. B. L. Love happy on last Friday night by carrying into their home many provisions, the party being led by Mrs. Alpha L. Johnson. Mrs. M. E. Scott and husband and Mr. Amos Armstrong attended services Sunday morning at St. Luke A. M. E. Church. Mr. Armstrong made a short talk to the congregation as he was once a citizen of Erin. Mr. William Dorch, of Chicago, is here spending the winter with his sister, Mrs. Lillie Ursery. Mrs. Nannie Oliphant left Saturday evening for Earlington, Ky., where she will spend three months with her husband, Mr. Gus Oliphant. Mr. John Yarbrough, of Earlington, Ky., formerly of Erin, spent Thursday, Friday and Saturday here. He was here to meet the Masonic lodge of which he is a member. Miss Erushia Dunbar, left Sunday evening for St. Louis, after a four weeks' visit to her mother, Mrs. Laura Bateman, and other relatives here. Mr. Charlie Hollister died at his home here Monday evening, leaving three children, one boy and two girls. The oldest child, a girl, is 13 years old. His funeral was preached by Rev. B. Dobbins, of St. James C. M. E. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Moore, pastor of St. James C. M. E. Church, is improving rapidly. He thinks he will be able to be out soon. Mr. Crockett Price son of Mr. and Mrs. John Price, has re-entered school at Clarksville, Tenn., for the spring term. Mrs. Blanche Thomas Jernigan, who has been teaching near Galatin, Tenn., is at home for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Milans will celebrate the twenty-first anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. Clara Milan Dobbins, at their home, February 11th, 1912. Rev. A. L. Mayfield passed through Erin last Friday, Jan. 26, and stopped with Rev. and Mrs. B. L. Love, who were glad to entertain the Rev. Mayfield and his wife. Rev. Mayfield was en route to his work on White Oak Circuit.

FULTON (KY.) NOTES.

Elmyra True went to Paris, Tenn., this week to visit her mother and sister. The public school on the Tennessee side of Fulton will have a rally at the Free Will Baptist Church Sunday. The gold medal contest to be given by the two public schools on February 9th is creating much interest in the city. The gold medal will be given by Dr. T. W. Hampton, pastor of St. Paul A. M. E. Church, to the best speller in the two schools. Mr. James Lightner and Miss Rennie Futral were married last Sunday at 6 o'clock. The Sunday-school at St. Paul is taking on new life. We are trying to reach every child in the city. Prof. Montgomery, principal of the South Fulton School, and Prof. Northington, of N. Fulton School, are doing good work. Messrs. I. N. Rowlett and M. Watfield, the managers of the Masonic grocery, are doing good business. Mrs. Etta Mann has just closed her school and has been appointed by Dr. Hampton to report to the Globe when he is not in the city.

ALLENSVILLE (KY.) NOTES.

The second quarterly conference will be held here at the C. M. E. Church on February 10, 11. Rev. J. H. Britt, of Hopkinsville, Ky., is the presiding elder. The weather has somewhat moderated, and the farmers are busy shipping and delivering their tobacco. The church work has been somewhat at a standstill on account of the bad weather. Wade Hampton Bell, of one the best young men of our town, died January 25th. The funeral sermon was delivered by Rev. W. Conway Smith, D. D. The quadrennial leap year party and mock marriage will take place at Spillman Chapel C. M. E. Church February 22, at 7:30 p. m. The service at the C. M. E. Church last Sunday was filled with spiritual enthusiasm. The Epworth League held quite an interesting session last Sunday. The following were pall bearers at W. H. Bell's funeral: C. H. Smith, Eddy Snyder, John Cross, Willie Bradley, Edgar Haynes and R. M. Smith.

PULASKI NOTES.

Rev. A. Brooks, who has been in St. Louis several days, returned home last Saturday night. Mrs. M. A. Turner, endowment secretary of the Courts of Calanthe, went to Nashville Saturday to attend the quarterly board meeting. She returned home Tuesday. Prof. A. T. Hill, the endowment secretary of the K. P. of the State, also went to Nashville Saturday to attend the board meeting, and little Henry Lincoln Hill went with him. They both returned Monday. Miss Dora Gardner left Sunday night for Indianapolis, Ind., where she is expecting to enter the city school. She has a sister and other relatives there. The inclement weather greatly interfered with services at the churches Sunday. Rev. A. J. James came up from Athens to fill his appointment at Old Zion. Mr. General Mitchell, who is well advanced in years, has the pneumonia, and owing to his advanced age his friends are a little uneasy. Rev. T. J. Peeler, of Columbia, was here Sunday to fill an appointment. Rev. M. C. Skillern went to Culleoka Saturday to fill his pulpit there on the day following. Mr. John A. Maxwell has been indisposed this week. Mrs. Anna Glens is yet sick. Mrs. M. F. Utley, of Nashville, came Saturday to see her mother, Mrs. McKissack. Thos. P. Turner, Jr., is the hustling Globe agent and reports the locals each week from Pulaski. All are requested to get their locals to him by Tuesday of each week. Mrs. Vannie Allen was in town Monday. Dr. John White, who looks after and cares for the feet, returned home a few days ago from an extended trip in Alabama. Mrs. Joe Yowell is one of the new readers of the Mother's Magazine, has returned home from Nashville, who has joined the Boush Baptist Sunday-School. Little Willie Milton The district school had their Arbor Day exercises last Friday. Miss Alice J. Patton entertained a few friends recently with a conundrum party at the residence of Mrs. Mattie Gee. Various games were enjoyed. Among the friends were Miss Monton and Gaynell-Sykes, Misses Annie Kimbro, R. M. Brown, A. J. Patton, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Carter, Mr. Solon Carter, Mr. Walter McNairy, Mr. Henry Lewis, of Kansas City, Mr. J. C. and E. E. Carpenter. Salads and fruits were served, and at a late hour the conundrum came off. Miss Alice Joyce Patton, of Columbia, Tenn., is visiting at 220 Morris street, the residence of Miss Birdie Mal Brown. She is loved very much by the people of Pulaski, and we hope she will spend a long time in our city. She is a dear friend of Miss Gee's family. The acme of the entertainer's art was reached last Sabbath evening when Miss Viola Vance served a seven-course menu at her residence on South Fourth street. A jolly company assembled at about 7:30 o'clock and spent an hour in singing sacred songs. Mrs. Lenora Keith presided at the organ. At 8:30 the guests were directed to the dining-room, where a beautifully and artistically decorated table awaited their coming. Three lighted tapers mounted on a silver stand hung with beautiful prisms and shaded with pink drapery adorned the center and gave a pleasing effect to the otherwise unique surroundings. Those present were Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Bridgeforth, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Keith and their little daughter, Louveda, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Rhodes and Dr. J. C. Gantt.

BROWNSVILLE NOTES.

The Housekeepers' Club was entertained last week by Mrs. Mary Taylor, of Depot street. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fitzpatrick, of Dyersburg, Tenn., are in the city this week attending circuit court. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Dailey. Rev. Bell, of the C. M. E. Church, preached an able sermon to a large audience Sunday morning from the text, "Watchman, what of the night?" Rev. Parr, of the First Baptist Church, will preach next Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. from the subject, "Child Training." We consider this an important subject, one that the majority of the parents should take under careful consideration and try to make some improvement on the present method of child training. Classes 2 and 7 are still holding the class medals in the Sabbath-school of the First Baptist Church.

HICKORY WITHE NOTES.

We have been enjoying a week of beautiful weather. Messrs. Leny Maybone and George Hardy have been thrashing peas this week for Messrs. W. S. Brooks and Noah Morris. Mr. Noah Morris has begun his work (ploughing for 1912). I guess he's getting ready for the 15c cotton. Messrs. Chester and Harvey Hardy, Messrs. Mary Porter and Lulu Wallace were the guests of Miss Samella Ivy Wednesday. Messrs. L. S. and Lily McJohnson, Richard Maybone were the guests of Misses Bessie Hardy and Lena Maybone. Mr. Robert McCullough was the guest of Miss Lena Maybone Sunday. I am glad to say our school, Matthews, is progressing nicely; our teacher, Mrs. Virginia Caldwell Johnson, is doing an excellent work. Among her advanced students are Misses Alice Brooks, Isia Hardy, Bettie Ketchum and Lena Ivy. Misses B. L. Hardy and Lena Maybone were the guests of Mrs. Laura Jones, also little George Hardy, Jr., Thursday. Mrs. Sadie Harris is recovering from a long spell of illness. Dr. M. V. Umbel, Mr. A. T. Johnson spent Friday hunting.

LAGRANGE NOTES.

Mr. Thurman King left home on last Monday for Holly Springs, Miss., where he entered school and since writes back that he is getting along nicely. Mrs. Sallie Goode died at her home on Saturday morning, January 27th. Funeral was attended at the cemetery by her pastor, Rev. Wm. Elrod. Mr. and Mrs. Will Wadley are rejoicing over a bouncing little lady. Mother and baby are doing nicely. Mrs. Willie Sullivan died at the home of her parents on last Friday night. Joshua Temple No. 758 of the Mosaic Templars of America met January 20th. The Mosaic Master, Alonza King, could not preside on account of other business and J. M. Minor was appointed master pro tem. $21.50 was raised to aid in the purchase of a Mosaic Hall at LaGrange, with thirty-five members present.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Mrs. J. Ella Miller, of Nashville, attended the funeral of her step-grandmother here last week. Mrs. Miller has returned home. Rev. J. S. Howard, Presiding Elder of the Putnam District, was here several days last week mingling with his many friends. Mrs. McTeer, of Springfield, Ill., has been a most pleasing visitor while here; she was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Ivory. Miss Sam Ella Green spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green. She has returned to Nashville. The Daughters of Zion, one of St. Paul Church's clubs, met with Mrs. Lizzie Eslic, 51 Glade street, January 21st. After the regular routine business Mrs. Eslic served a three-course menu in honor of Dr. G. W. Porter, who met the club and made some very encouraging remarks. Rev. Williams, pastor of Hopewell A. M. E. Church, preached at Bethel last Thursday night to a large congregation. Mr. Frank Harris, of Birmingham, Ala., is here. He came to attend his sister's funeral, who died at the home of her uncle, Mr. James Porter. Mrs. Margaret Webster was called to Huntsville, Ala., by telegram to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Mary Battle. Mrs. Battle died January 29th.

SOUTH PITTSBURG NOTES.

Prof. W. J. Hale, of Chattanooga, passed through here last Saturday, on his way from Jasper, the county seat of this county, where he lectured on Friday night, the 26th, to a large congregation. Among those from this point who went to witness Prof. Hale's lecture and Prof. Shockey's closing exercises of the Jasper school, were Dr. W. J. Astrapp and Miss Jamie Lightfoot. Rev. C. H. Gardner, of McMinnville, preached at the Mt. Bethlehem Baptist Church two nights last week. The Eleventh District school, taught by Mrs. Ella E. McElroy, held special exercises last Friday during the day. Rev. T. G. Hadden was among the invited guests, who made a noteworthy address after a spelling contest between two divisions of the school. This closed a six months' term of labor for both teacher and pupils. The South Pittsburg Hustler (white), a weekly paper of this city, has given two columns of space for the news of the colored people, which is edited by that race uplifting and public-spirited Mrs. J. M. Hawkins. Long live the colored column of the Hustler. The sick are Mrs. Elvira Johnson, Mrs. Albert Pankey, Mrs. Ola Morris James. Those who are recovering are: Mrs. Paulina Cooley, Mrs. Wash Barnes, Miss Ola Gilliam, Mrs. Ethel Bonner, Mrs. Addie Gaines Burns, and little Miss Clara Gaines. Mrs. Lewis Cunningham has returned from Chattanooga, where she visited her sick uncle, Rev. Ed. Webster, who was much improved. A Leap Year Party is being planned, which is to be the swellest affair of the season.

CHATTANOOGA NOTES.

Mrs. Magnolia Bryant, of 219 Grove street, is on the sick list. Mrs. Hamilton, of Knoxville, Tenn., president of the Woman's Baptist State Convention, is in the city, preparatory to attending the "Golden Wedding" anniversary of two of the oldest members of the First Baptist Church, of which Dr. C. A. Bell is pastor. She is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Bell her daughter and son-in-law, corner E. and East Eighth streets. Rev. Trig, of Dayton, Tenn., is in the city running a revival meeting at the Patton Memorial A. M. E. Church, St. Elmo, of which the Rev. J. H. Branner is pastor. Rev. W. W. Lucas, who has been in the city for several days, running a series of meetings for the Rev. Forest, at the Wyley Memorial M. E. Church, is having much success, and will doubtless be persuaded to run another week. The beautiful home of the widow, Mrs. Smith, 116 Dods avenue, was greatly damaged by fire last week, destroying practically all the household effects. The building was owned and occupied by the widow Mrs. Smith and her mother. The "Dunbar" Literary Club of the First Baptist Church rendered a most excellent programme on last Monday night to a large and enthusiastic audience. The program rendered by the literary society of the Mt. Paran Baptist Church Monday night was all that could be desired.

MASON NOTES.

Mr. Henry Porter, the proprietor of the City Barber Shop and Pressing Shop, has retired from city life and has moved to the country, on the deceased Dennis Porter's plantation, of which he is the administrator. Mr. and Mrs. Green are planning to move to the Melton plantation. Rev. Julius Snyder preached a logical sermon last Sunday at Alexander Chapel. Mr. A. Stewart, an octogenarian of our city, was very sick last week. Rev. P. H. Ruffin made a business trip to Memphis last week. The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hance Bonds and left four (4) boy babies last Tuesday night, January 23rd. Two years ago she was the mother of twin children. Mrs. Bonds has been married twelve years and is the mother of twelve children. The four babies weighed 5 pounds each. Mother and children are doing well.

KEELING NOTES.

Mr. Dooley McLin returned last Friday from Arkansas, where he spent several days visiting his daughter, Mrs. Nancy Flemings. He reports a delightful trip. Sir J. R. McBride made a business trip to Memphis Saturday. Dr. R. S. Fields, of Mason, was in town Thursday. Mr. Geo. Carter, who lives on the Keeling and Mason road, has recently purchased a valuable lot in the heart of town. The little four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dupree is regaining her strength after a long sick spell. Mr. Sam Allen and Mrs. Nelson are sick. During the meeting of the Birmingham Presbytery and the Synod of East Tennessee Rev. M. J. Nelson, A. M., a graduate from the Lincoln University, Philadelphia, new pastor of Greenleaf Presbyterian Church, was elected Moderator on each meeting. Rev. L. B. Ellerson, D. D., and Rev. Dusenbury, D. D., being the retiring Moderators. The of-

Scient pastor is doing a great work here. If you want the latest news, subscribe for the Globe. Call at J. R. McBride's Grocery and he will send you to his agent.

DECATURVILLE NOTES.

Last week was examination of Decaturville Training School. Those who led in the examination are as follows: Misses Madge White, Nancy and Vella Lowry, Erritt Pettigrew, Flora Jones, Vella Scott, Maud Swift, Ola White, Lula B. Burton, Willie Laster and Mittie Bradley, Messrs. Ray Pettigrew, J. H. Johnson, Edgar Burton, Arthur Swift, R. R. Yarbrough and John White. Miss Clara A. McLe-more principal of Parson School, and Misses Eula and Gladys Scott were pleasant visitors at the school Friday. They were entertained at the home of Prof. and Mrs. M. C. Jones Friday evening by the young people of the town. Music and games were the features of the evening. Rev. R. B. Adams, of Memphis, our former pastor was here last week. We were all glad to receive Bro. Adams.

MARTIN NOTES.

Rev. R. Griff preached at the C. M. E. Church at the morning service. Rev. H. G. Harris, pastor of Oak Grove Baptist Church, filled his pulpit, and at McCabe Temple Rev. S. M. Strayhorn, B. D., had a large crowd at 11 a. m. and his sermon was strange and powerful. The Weakley County Teacher's monthly Association was held in our city on January 27, and Prof. B. E. Dobbins, of Greenfield; Mrs. Justeen Grigley, Miss Dunlap, of Dresden, Tenn., Mrs. A. M. Bishop, of Sharon, and our Prof. A. M. Bishop and many others were in attendance. Mrs. Jane Shepherd and little Miss Rudel Warner spent the Sabbath in Fulton, Ky. Mrs. Julia Warner is spending a few days in Union City. Mr. Frank Stern spent two days in Nashville last week on business. Mr. C. L. Williams has just received a fine line of new samples of spring goods and will be glad to have his friends come to see him. Mrs. S. M. Strayborne and Miss Jennie Street are much better this week. Several young men from Dresden attended services at McCabe Temple M. E. Church last Sunday, and young ladies will be glad to see them again soon. Dr. Carter, of Little Rock, Ark., spoke at the McCabe Temple Wednesday night. Our people like the Globe because it gives the news of the Negro as well as that of the white folks. Always be ready to pay your paper boy when he comes, and if you are away from home leave the money. Mr. C. C. Cox has opened up the Blue Goose again. Mr. T. B. Busby can hardly keep enough leather in his shoe shop, as there is quite a rush in business. It looks good to me to see the gray horse of D. C. Martin & Son going to nearly all the Negro homes in Martin carrying groceries. Mr. L. Olden and others left last Monday for Lake County to work. Mrs. E. F. Martin killed hogs last week and some of them were fine. Mr. G. M. Price is a hustler in the insurance business. He sticks to his work. Mrs. Eddie F. Martin and Mrs. Fannie Williams were pleasant visitors at the parsonage last week, and left a few good things to eat. Give Charlie Shepherd your name and money for the Globe.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

The rain on last Sunday put an end to quite a number of our churchgoers, yet the Sunday-schools were all able to make a good report. Mrs. Mattie Scott, of Nashville, was called to the bedside of her brother's little sick daughter that died last Thursday night. She was buried at Fayetteville last Saturday. Mr. Chester Winston is quite sick at this writing. Mrs. R. O. Laws was able to fill her place in Sunday-school last Sunday. Mrs. Mabel Ryles has joined the Globe society and paid her initiation fee. She is right. She knows a good paper and reads it. Mrs. Martha Bright is still on the sick list. Mr. Morris Morderris made a flying and business trip to Shelby last Monday. Mr. Jeff Ryles was the guest of Mrs. Matt. Ryles on Jackson street last week. The Sunday-school of the Elk River Sunday-School Convention that meets in South Pittsburg in August, that brings up the largest amount of money for the district missionary. Rev. J. H. Hillman, will be rewarded with a very handsome Sunday-school banner. This banner will be presented by the Superintendent of Missions, Rev. E. M. Lawrence. So. Flat Creek, Hazeland, Fairfield, Huntland, Decherd, Cowan, McMinnville, Bean's Creek, Mt. Zion, Watraces, Bellbuckle and Shelbyville are coming up one thousand strong with the banner unfurled to the breeze, with the triple declaration, One Lord, one faith and one baptism. So come on, old Tullahoma will meet you there sure. Rev. J. Swift, assisted by Miss Effie Martin and Mrs. Bettie Hunt, is making large preparations for a cantata play known as "Queen Esther," which will be given at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church next week, and then at the Wigwam Church. Mrs. Wm. Martin is on the sick list this week. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ramey have returned from Lynchburg. Read the Globe and keep posted. Mrs. Emaline Brown is still improving at this writing. Subscribe for the Globe and pay your subscriptions.

FRANKLIN NOTES.

Mr. Thomas J. Brooks, of Nashville, Tenn., was the guest of Miss Annie B. Hobbs Sunday. Those present were Misses Fannie Lou Moore, Jessie Mal Moore, Messrs. Willie Mason and Frank Cheatham. A delightful time was spent. Mrs. Saul House has spent the month of January with her daughters, Mesdames Will and Jim L. Moore, until her residence is completed, after which she will return home. The popular tailor of this city, Mr. O. B. Williams, was given a surprise birthday party the 22nd inst. The affair was quite a surprise to him as he had just returned from a business trip through the rural district. The affair was under the auspices of the V. P. C. There were twenty young men who sat down to the menu. Mr. Williams responded in a brief speech, which was applauded.

APPRECIATE A

Negro Doll

AS MUCH NOW AS BEFORE CHRISTMAS.

Do not think that because the Christmas holidays are over that it is too late to give your little girl a Negro Doll. If this thought has occurred to you, you are laboring under the wrong impression. Girls always appreciate dolls, because they are companions for them in their loneliness.

They are joys to her when her play-mates arrive. They are just the things to remind her of her own beautiful likeness. We are still prepared to ship these dolls immediately upon receipt of your order for the same. We will sell any of the dolls named below, which are all we have left, at the amount marked opposite each size doll.
